

THE ARTS SOCIETY
BIRMINGHAM EVENING

BITE SIZE BRUM

‘Anchors Away’ A walk around landlocked Birmingham

- Date and Time: Thursday 3 October 2019. Meet at 10.30am for 10.45am. The walk finishes at about 12,30 pm.
- Format We meet up with Ben Waddington at 10.30 for 10.45 in Kingston Row (off Cambridge Street) B1 2NU. Behind the Malt House, near the Flapper Pub. The walk takes about 90 minutes and we finish at the Anchor Inn Digbeth where we plan to have lunch. Please remember to tick the box if you wish me to book you a place for lunch.
- Venue The walk starts at Kingston Row behind the ICC and ends at the Anchor Inn on Bradford Street near the Coach station.
- Cost £12.00 for TASBE members and £14.00 for non-members.
Max size of group 20.
Cheques payable to: Arts Society Birmingham Evening.
- Transport: At either end of this walk are, the old Paradise Circus car park off Cambridge Street near to Kingston Row, and The Markets Moat Lane Car Park at the end of Bradford Street. City Centre train stations are 5 – 10 minutes’ walk from both ends of the walk and many bus routes again pass within walking distance.
- Reply to Ian Wagstaff, 24 Wentworth Road, Harborne, Birmingham B17 9SG
- Questions? Ian Wagstaff - 0121 427 4202 or email wagstafffamily@gmail.com

‘Anchors Away’ A walk around landlocked Birmingham

Name TASBE Member/ Non-Member £12.00 / £14.00

Name TASBE Member/ Non-Member £12.00 / £14.00

Contact Phone Number:and email:

I would like to book a place for lunch I would not like to stay for Lunch

Confirmation of your place will be sent by email.

Data Protection: details provided will only be used for the purposes of administering the named activity